

This list with CPV codes has been selected with care by TENDERS dot EU and is a service product free of charge. However, the selection of CPV codes you want to be included in the searchprofile is not our responsibility. Feel free to download the complete list of CPV codes yourselves and to deliver your own codes for the searchprofile.

In the column 'profile' you can mark the codes you want to be included in the searchprofile. In the column 'code' are listed ascending codes of eight digits. In the column 'description' you will find a short description of the code. The more zero's (0) at the end of a code, the more general the description (and so the product); the less the number of zero's (0) in the codes, the more specific the product will be.

A document (tender) will be selected if at least one of the codes in the searchprofile, appears in the tenderdocument. Such a match between codes in your profile and the tendernotice will be highlighted in red in the text. Generally, the tender will also contain CPV codes which are not included in your searchprofile.

The codes in the tender are assigned by the contracting authorities.
