Registration procedure

On Monday, November 3, 2025, at 9:00 AM, registration opens for participation in the World of Industry, Technology & Science 2026 (WoTS). At that time, you will receive an email from FHI with a link to the online floor plan. As an exhibitor, you can select your own stand location.

Registration dates per category

Registration will open in phases for four target groups:

Category	Start date
1. Members of FHI, FEDA, and Machevo who exhibited in 2024	Monday, November 3, 2025, 9:00 AM
2. Other members of FHI, FEDA, and Machevo	Monday, November 10, 2025, 9:00 AM
3. Non-members who exhibited in 2024	Monday, November 17, 2025, 9:00 AM
4. Other non-members	Monday, November 24, 2025, 9:00 AM

Practical information

- The online floor plan (in a secured environment) shows available booths, pavilions, seminar rooms, and catering points.
- Depending on your category (see table above), you can select a booth location starting from the corresponding date.
- The floor plan is divided into three worlds:
 - World of Industry
 - World of Electronics
 - World of Laboratory

Registration procedure

How does registration work?

Step 1: choose your stand location

- Review the online floor plan and select a stand that suits your activities.
- Click on the desired stand and enter your details. In the comments field, indicate your second and third choices.
- Submit the reservation request. Upon allocation, you will receive confirmation from FHI. If we cannot assign your preferred stand(s), we will contact you.

Step 2: finalize your registration

- Complete the online registration form within two working days.
- Your participation is only officially confirmed after receipt of this form.

Important notes

- The floor plan is not updated in real-time. In case of duplicate requests, priority will be given to the first submission.
- Have you provided a second and third choice? If available, FHI may allocate one of these booths. Without alternative choices, you will need to submit a new request.
- The reservation is only final after written confirmation.
- Your reservation remains valid for two working days. If the registration form is not received within this period, the reserved booth location will be released.
- You may only reserve one booth, unless you actually intend to purchase multiple booths.
