

Nano4Society iMNC2020 Poster Pitch Award

Submit your abstract today to present your poster and give a scientific pitch at iMNC2020.

With your pitch you can attract the attention of potential project partners and showcase your research to start discussions with your peers. The pitches will be grouped in the same theme from the 4 Nano4Society themes:

- Nano4Agri/Food
- Nano4Security
- Nano4Health
- Nano4Energy

Your PDF poster will be published in the iChair platform for all attendees to view. A contact button is placed next to your poster, so you can be reached to ask questions outside of the pitch session. Next to the PDF of your poster, you can add weblinks and video or animation to give more background information with your poster.

Send in your abstract today and as a bonus, Nano4Society offers a chance to win the Nano4Society Pitch Award, including a cash prize of 500 Eur.

Deadline

Deadline for abstract submission is Sunday November 15, 2020 23:00 hrs (GMT+1).

Follow these steps to participate:

1. You submit your abstract and register for iMNC2020
2. You send in a poster in PDF from your abstract
3. You present a 3 minute scientific pitch at the iMNC2020 conference
4. You answer questions from attendees or the moderator in the session
